LOCAL AUTHOR RELEASES ADVENTURE GUIDEBOOK FOR UTAH KIDS

PARK CITY – Not sure what to do with the kids this weekend? Wait no more, the new book “Utah 4 Kids Adventure Guidebook” will get you started on the most amazing Utah adventures.

Written and illustrated by Samantha Simon, Utah 4 Kids Adventure Guidebook introduces a series of characters called the Fardoodles as the spokescreatures. The Fardoodles are little creatures with big noses and funny toes. Their entire job is to engage children in fun across Utah.

The author challenges parents, grandparents, aunts and uncles to take full advantage of the activities offered throughout Utah from St. George to Logan and find better ways to connect with kids in their lives.

The book was published by Connector Publishing of Park City, Utah.

According to Simon, “Life should be an exciting adventure full of imagination.”
